

ELM CITY NOTES.

Ed's. TIMES:—We were pleased to receive a copy of THE WILSON TIMES and noted with pleasure the excellency of the first issue.

We are glad THE TIMES affords us a paper so clean and creditable. We wish for the child (of the press) an early growth to vigorous manhood, wise in small things, but above all truthful.

As an introduction, Mr. Editor, we will first say we are all well. We claim a health record surpassed by no town in Eastern North Carolina. Notwithstanding our geographical location and local environments I think in point of health, if not in picturesqueness we could compare sheets favorably with most excellent Brevard of Western N. C.

We noted in your former issue the death of Mr. A. W. Rowland, formerly of Wilson. The writer knew him well and wishes to attest his high regard of his many noble traits of character. He was a manly, courteous, courageous gentleman, and in his death humanity has lost a generous friend and his associates the comradeship of a noble character and the impress of a worthy life.

Yesterday was pleasant and spring-like, but today the weather is cold, and drifting snowflakes promise a heavy snow.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Travis of Halifax are here on a visit to Prof. and Mrs. J. W. Hays.

Miss Gussie Britt of Rocky Mount is visiting her sister Mrs. E. G. Williams.

Mrs. Bell Haynes of Tarboro is visiting her parents Capt. and Mrs. W. L. Grimmer.

Jno. J. Pridgen of Baltimore spent Sunday in town.

Mr. F. M. Draughn of Rocky Mount was here yesterday. Mr. Draughn is one of our former citizens, and we are glad to know he is doing well and one of the leading merchants at Rocky Mount.

Rev. B. R. Hall preached in the M. E. church last week to the great delight of all who heard him. His sermon was indeed a fine effort and was pronounced by many as perhaps the best they had ever heard.

We hope soon to see the telephone line between Poinsett and Wilson completed. We need the exchange and think it will prove of mutual advantage.

BLACK CREEK LOCALS.

Miss Bettie Graves of Stantonsburg is teaching here. Her patrons are well pleased with the progress their children are making.

Mr. J. C. Rice has killed fifty hogs this winter, the net weight being 10,280 pounds, an average of 204 pounds. Who can beat this?

On Sunday last Squire O. W. Spivey united in marriage Sallie Dew to John Edmundson, a colored couple. There were perhaps one hundred people in attendance.

The Magistrates for this township were in session Saturday to receive the reports of the road overseers. They appointed Saturday, Feb. 22nd, to let to the lowest bidder for repairs to the Black Creek and Great Swamp bridges which were damaged considerably by the recent freshet.

There has been considerable stealing in this section recently. The Post-office, (no valuables taken), the store of Mr. J. B. Paschall, the smoke-house of Mrs. J. T. Pittman, O. W. Spivey and Henry Raper's have been entered and a large amount of goods and meal taken. All efforts to apprehend the guilty parties have been of no avail. A safe, sure, and effective remedy to put a stop to so much stealing would be for the County Commissioners to buy blood hounds and have them in readiness to be on the spot in a few hours after a robbery had occurred. It would be a paying investment for the tax payers. Let the County Commissioners of Wilson follow those of Wayne in this matter and buy the dogs at once. X. X. X.

Mr. Henry Blount is adding new laurels to his bright garland of reputation by his brilliant and entertaining performance to be seen by the citizens of Wilson from the Monroe Theatre on Friday night our pleasure of hearing Henry Blount, the actor, "Chow Chow." Beyond question, one of the best actors of the Old North State ever produced. His wit is sparkling and fresh. His eloquence is unsurpassed and his flow of language is without a parallel.

Wilson Personals Continued.

Hon. F. A. Woodard who has been here a few days returned to Washington last night.

Mr. Ed Rawlings left last night for Tarboro on business.

Mr. Geo. K. Denmark of Washington D. C. is visiting his relatives Elder P. D. Gold and family.

Mess. Geo. D. Green and Judge Connor returned from a business trip to Goldsboro last night.

Gratifying.

Our canvass for subscribers has been very gratifying, as also the compliments concerning our first issue. We have not as yet been to see everyone, but hope to soon. In the meantime we trust those we have been unable to see will drop in and give us their names.

Bill Nye, the humorist, seriously ill at his home near Asheville. Thought to be dying.

Friends: O. W. Maynard the diamond mounter at J. J. Privett's, the Jeweller.

A Clear Conscience.—Don't some of these old songs haunt you? "No; I've never murdered any of them."—Chicago Record.

Do not forget the only engraver in town at J. J. Privett's, the Jeweller.

Just received a new lot of watches, filled and solid gold. J. J. Privett, the Jeweller.

Although a girl may be bright enough to know that "kiss" is a noun she's frequently unable to decline it. —Philadelphia Press.

Friends, in town, if your clock needs repairing send me word. I will send for it, repair the same, regulate and return to your house and see it properly placed on mantle piece. J. J. Privett, the Jeweller.

Bennie—What's a conversationalist? Jennie—Oh, it's a man that doesn't have to stop talking when he hasn't got anything more to say.—Truth.

Come and inspect our facilities for mounting diamonds and repairing mounting. We not only mount diamonds, but all kinds of stones to order. J. J. Privett, the Jeweller.

Crimsonbeak—What's the matter with young Huggins? Yeast—I understand he has lost his heart. Is that all? He makes as much fuss as if it was his collar-button.—Yonkers Statesman.

SPILONA, N. C. Aug. 17th, 1895.

Mr. F. S. ROYSTER, Tarboro, N. C. Dear Sir—The Farmers' Bone I bought of you this season can't be beaten by any fertilizer made. The first crop of cotton I have ever grown is where I only used 200 lbs. of Farmers' Bone alone. My customers all praise it highly; say they never have used any fertilizer that paid better than Farmers' Bone—one farmer says it is by far the best he has ever used.

Yours truly, R. J. LASSITER.

Remember we will clean your jewelry free of charge. J. J. Privett the Jeweller.

Hotel Proprietor—Why did you let that countryman climb the stairs instead of taking the elevator?

Clerk—He'll be so out of breath that he can't blow out the gas.—Harper's Bazar.

Mr. JOHN C. DREWRY, STATE AGT. MUTUAL BENEFIT LIFE INS. CO. OF NEWARK N. J. Raleigh, N. C.

Dear Sir:—I am in receipt, through Mr. S. B. Parker, of Co's, check for $60.61 in full payment of policy No. 225,089 upon the life of Charlie A. Carter. This policy had lapsed for more than 6 months previous to his death, which shows the wisdom of taking a policy in a company which provides the liberal feature of extending insurance.

Permit me to thank you, and through you, the Company for their promptness and liberality in settlement of this claim. I have a $5,000 policy on my own life in your company which is in every way satisfactory. Very Resp't. GEO. D. GREEN.

The Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company of Newark N. J. is one of the largest and oldest companies, and for liberality of contract is unequalled. S. B. Parker, Special Agt. Wilson, N. C.
